

Abraxos Technical Trainee Program (ATTP)

Join the team with our 24-months international training program ATTP. In the ATTP we are looking for technical talents who have the potential to extend their knowledge to a more professional level, with greater responsibility and tackling major projects.

Program:

- Complete a fully supported 24 months program in Europe, Asia and North America
- Introduction to production process, product training application technologies sales / regular exchange with mentor
- Understand our customer orientation and needs, our internationalisation and growth of our major markets worldwide
- Thorough understanding of Meister Abrasives Strategy and Vision
- Share personal skills and experiences across the Meister Abrasives technical team
- Presentation of a project work at the end of the program

Target positions after the program:

- OEM, Application Manager
- Product Manager
- Key Account Manager
- Technical Sales Force
- Process Leaders
- Production Experts

Ready for your next challenge?

- Talented and technologically driven persons with high development potential
- Polymechanic, Designer or similar and/or Higher Technical Education
- Passion und motivation to participate in new technologies / development
- Great communicators, flexibility and willingness to travel
- Very good skills in English and German spoken and written, additional languages of advantage

We are looking forward to meeting you soon – please contact Human Resources at our Headquarter in Andelfingen personal@meister-abrasives.ch

Let's shape the future together!